Letter To Readers

The current auction is our unique to the industry affordable all sports autograph, card and memorabilia offering. For this auction, approximately 800 lesser value lots are not included in the printed catalog. Upon request, we can mail or email a list of these items.

This auction has a tremendous variety of interesting items that are fresh to the market. This will be the final major installment of the incredible Chicago Cubs-related collection that we have been featuring in our last few auctions. We begin with autographed baseball cards; these go back to the 1950s and include clean HOFers, many nice lots, several scarcities and a terrific run of Derek Jeter signed cards.

Baseball autographs continue with many fine signed 8x10 photos and related flats, with classic HOFers and rarities offered throughout. We have a neat pair of desirable Ted Williams checks, some signed documents, many nice 3x5s and GPCs, letters, signed programs and related flats in this section. This is well worth reviewing carefully if you work with vintage autographs .

Autographed baseballs include many single signed balls with rare inscriptions, including Sandy Koufax and Willie Mays. We have hundreds of nice balls offered in manageable lots, these are really worth reviewing. There is a nice selection of interesting multi-signed balls. Team ball collectors will see 100 different lots. We have collector grade balls dating back to the 1940s, higher grade balls from the 1960s and 1970s and some contemporary Championship teams, this is a broad and strong offering of these great collectibles.

We continue with a large selection of single signed bats, some nice team and multi-signed bats and collector bats. There is a wide offering of baseball pubs, including World Series programs dating back to the 1920s, clean yearbooks and All Star Game programs and a wide variety of interesting and unusual scorecards and paper items going back 100 years.

Baseball memorabilia includes a fine and fresh offering of vintage bobbin head dolls (these are also in basketball and football memorabilia). There are strong offerings of vintage pennants, tickets, photos, pins and related material.

Day two starts with baseball cards. There are some very high grade vintage card lots from the 1960s and 1970s, and also lower grade lots that are loaded with stars. There are many key cards here, including many clean Mantles from the 1960s, a Koufax RC, two Gibson RCs, two Yaz RCs, Seaver RC and three Ryan Rookies.

For basketball collectors, we have sets and singles from the 1960s to the current days, some nice unopened material and also interesting signed items.

Football is always a big part of these auctions. We have cards going back to 1948 Leaf with some interesting stuff through the current day, and a good selection of autographs and memorabilia. We have some key tickets from the 1950s and 1960s, the first three Super Bowl programs, signed mini helmets, signed photos, footballs, prints and more.

Hockey and other sports close out the auction. We have a 1979-80 Topps set, a signed Gretzky card, signed pucks and jerseys and an eclectic offering of items from other sports.

Thank you for taking the time to read about our auction. We are always looking for consignments for our auctions and we buy outright as well. We continue to produce top results for our consignors as we have since 1995.

Near-Set w/stars (564/598) Ex..... 150
Offered is a generally well centered and very clean near set of 1962 Topps cards. Unfortunately, an unknown percentage of cards have had color added at the tips (likely less than 15% but we are not certain).
