Letter To Readers

The current auction is our unique to the industry affordable all sports autograph and memorabilia-only auction. Nearly all items have a retail value of $500 or less and low minimum bids, this auction takes place over two days and features a world of fresh and interesting autographs and memorabilia.

Day one is all about baseball autographs. We start with autographed cards, highlights include several key 1962 Mets signed cards, including Chacon, Hodges and Stengel. We have many signed key star cards, Rookie Cards and cards with desirable inscriptions in this section.

Signed photos are always a big part of these auctions, we have 8x10s of classic HOFers and stars, many interesting multi-signed photos, quality group lots and scarce signed photos from long deceased players. We have a run of 3x5s, with Harry Agganis, Roger Maris and two Satchel Paiges, many slabbed.

Collectors of signed equipment will see a solid run of signed jerseys. We also have signed hats including Ted Williams, a superb David Ortiz signed Twins jacket and more. There are some terrific signed large prints, including lithographs, 16x20 photos, team signed photos and related content. Collectors of signed Life Magazines will see a fine run in matching frames, including Campanella, DiMaggio, Koufax, Mantle, Mays and Williams. Autographed flats conclude with some very interesting signed programs.

Day one closes out with a deep run of signed baseballs. Encompassing nearly 400 different lots, with a big run of HOF singles, several with inscriptions, deceased players, current stars including DeGrom, Judge and Kershaw and terrific value group lots. There are many very interesting multi and team signed baseballs, with classic HOFers, All Star Balls and popular teams.

Day two covers all of the other sports and concludes with baseball pubs and memorabilia. Basketball collectors will see signed jerseys including Bird and Russell, interesting signed basketballs, photos and prints and a 1970 NBA Finals game 6 ticket. Boxing collectors will see a 1910 Jeffries-Johnson ticket, many unusual signed items, a few better tickets, a beautiful Joe Frazier signed Everlast robe and more.

Football is a huge part of this auction. Checking in at nearly 250 lots, we have quality signed cards, including a deep run of the very popular 1974 and 1975 Fleer Immortal cards, all slabbed. There are signed footballs, full size helmets, jerseys, large prints and more. We also have a solid run of football programs going back to the 1930s, with a run of 1960s NFL Championship programs and several better tickets, including a Tom Brady University of Michigan first game ticket.

We have some nice golf signed items and memorabilia, with autographs and some key early Tiger Woods tickets. Hockey collectors will see an interesting Boston Bruins collection and many nice signed items. We have more horse racing items than ever, with note to Kentucky Derby tickets from key races going back to 1930.

Baseball memorabilia is as deep a section as ever. We have a fresh collection of New York Mets game bats from a clubhouse person, signed bats, a fine run of tickets with many World Series tickets, pennants, pins, game used equipment and much more.

Baseball pubs include our usual runs of World Series programs, All Star Game programs, yearbooks and a run of unusual scorecards from the 1920s through the 1950s.

1615 Boston Red Sox Spring Training Program Lot -
Complete Run from 1950 - 2020! 200

From an extremely advanced Red Sox collection, pubs were a great passion for this collector. A terrific lot, this is a full run of Red Sox Spring Training programs from 1950 through 2000 with some duplicates. The condition is very clean overall. One can only imagine how much work went into putting a together a run that you just never see. An almost unique offering, this hopefully will end up in the hands of a big Red Sox collector, but a dealer can probably have a field day selling these as singles. Great lot.
