Letter To Readers

This is our final auction of 2019. We want to thank all of our bidders and consignors for making 2019 one of our very best years ever. Most importantly, we want to wish everyone an early Happy and Healthy holiday season.

We close the year with our unique to the industry affordable all sports autograph and memorabilia-only auction. This auction is filled almost entirely with items that have a retail value of $500 or less and low minimum bids.

The auction takes place over two days. Day one is baseball autographs, day two has team signed baseballs, basketball, football, hockey and baseball memorabilia.

Day one begins with signed baseball cards. Content here includes a run of beautiful signed 1953 Glendale Meats Tigers cards, several tougher Nellie Fox 1960s Topps cards and a terrific run of 1986 Robert Stephen Simon signed cards.

We have a final selection of vintage signed Yankee player contracts. We had a big run of these, this is the final batch, so keep this in mind if you want to add one of these to your collection.

Collectors of yearbooks and vintage programs will see some terrific Yankee signed yearbooks from the late 1960s through the late 1980s. Many of these are exceptionally comprehensive, with big stars throughout. There are also many tougher signed magazines, scorecards and more.

We have perhaps our largest offering ever of single signed and team signed baseballs. There are hundreds of singles, with note to many tougher deceased singles, many of which hardly ever come to market. Collectors of HOF singles will see a world class selection. We have tougher singles of current superstars, desirable broadcaster singles and interesting singles from other sports, including a gorgeous Walter Payton single signed baseball.

Multi and team signed baseballs start the second day of the auction. Among our most extensive offerings ever, there are all sorts of fun combination balls, classic duos and a wide ranging run of team balls from the 1930s through the 2000s.

Basketball collectors will see a run of desirable early NBA programs and the program from the first Celtic-Laker NBA finals matchup and more.

Football collectors will see an extensive run of signed Goal Line postcards, several key 1964 Philadelphia signed cards, quality signed flats and many signed programs. We also have many key signed insert cards from the 1990s and 2000s, including Unitas, Bradshaw, Montana and Marino among others.

Baseball memorabilia closes out the auction. We have a deep collection of vintage mini-bats and several unusual collector bats. We have our biggest run ever of vintage baseball pins. There is a world of Yankee pins, going back to the 1930s, broken into many lots. There are scarce pins of Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris among much more.

Signed Contracts & Documents

268 1960 Document Lot of 21 different w/6 HOFers 9. 100
Signed in 1960, these documents are for the use of various players images in the book Baseball Confidential. All are signed neatly in period blue ink. Content includes six HOFers (Appling, Cronin, Kell, Kelly, Mize and Slaughter). The other pieces are precisely as follows: Wally Berger, Zeke Bonura, Dolph Camilli, Ben Chapman, Woody English, John Frederick (D'77), Tommy Holmes, Tom Long (D'72), Dale Mitchell, Al Rosen, Vic Saier (D'67), Roy Sievers, Hal Trosky, Mickey Vernon and Cy Williams. JSA LOAA.

269 Bernhardt, Walter Signed 1919 Yankee Contract 9 75
Profoundly obscure player, he pitched in one game for the 1918 Yankees! This is his contract for 1919, it has a bold signature from Bernhardt, but is not signed by anyone else, so this is either his copy or somehow the offer was withdrawn. Bernhardt died in 1958, I cannot imagine that his autograph comes around very often, especially on a player contract! JSA LOAA.

270 Blackwell, Ewell Signed 1953 Yankee Player Contract 9.5 100
Neat contract for a name player, Blackwell was paid $14,500 to pitch for the 1953 Yanks. Blackwell signed this at the time. This contract is very interesting as it was transferred to the newly created Kansas City A's in 1955. For this reason, this contract has two signatures from both AL President William Harridge and Yankee President George Weiss. The Yankees made a good decision here, as Blackwell pitched all of two games in 1955 and then retired. Contracts like this are very interesting and hardly ever come to market. JSA LOAA.

271 Broaca, Johnny 1934 Yankee Contract w/Paul Krichell signature! 9.5 100
Quality Yankee contract, pitcher Johnny Broaca was a 1934-37 Yankee and 1939 Indian (44-29 career record). Offered is his original 1934 Yankee contract, this has a perfect period fountain pen ink signature. In a great touch, this is also signed by legendary Yankee scout Paul Krichell (D'57, as a witness), by Ed Barrow (for Ruppert) and AL President William Harridge. JSA LOAA.

272 Durst, Cedric 1929 Yankee Contract 9.5 75
Spotless condition 1920s Yankee original player contract, this is for 1927 Yankee Durst and paid him $5,000. Durst signed the document in very attractive period color fountain pen. This is also signed by Barrow (for Ruppert) and AL President E.S. Barnard. D'71. JSA LOAA.

273 Farrell, Eddie Doc 1932 Yankee Contract 9.5 75
Respectable player from 1925-1935 (D'1966), offered is his 1932 Yankees original player contract. Farrell signed this in jet black period fountain pen. The contract is also signed by Ed Barrow (for Ruppert), and AL President William Harridge. JSA LOAA.

274 Francis, Ray Signed 1925 Yankee Contract (extremely rare) 9 200

Extremely rare signed item, offered is a 1925 original New York Yankee player contract. Ray Francis was to be paid $4,000 to play for the Yanks that year. Francis appeared in all of 10 games, with an 0-2 record and was traded or released before the end of the season. Francis also played for the Red Sox, Tigers and Senators in his brief career. We go into all of this detail as Francis sadly died in 1934 at only age 41. The contract has a super bold blue fountain pen signature from Francis, just below Jacob Ruppert (usually secretarial). This is something for an autograph collector who appreciates true rarity! JSA LOAA.

275 High, Hugh Signed 1918 Yankee Contract 8.5 100
Nice early Yankee contract, this is a clean fully executed 1918 player contract. This is signed by High (D'62), Jacob Ruppert and Ban Johnson. JSA LOAA.

276 Johnson, Ernie Signed 1925 Yankee Player Contract 9 50
A hitter from 1912-1925 for several teams, he was a 1923-1925 Yankee. Offered is his signed 1925 Yankee contract, it is only signed by him, so this example was not executed for whatever reason. The autograph is bold, Johnson died in 1952. JSA LOAA.

277 Karlon, Bill 1930 Yankee Contract 9.5 50
Original 1930 Yankee original player contract, this is for the very obscure Bill Karlon (D'1964). Karlon signed the document in period fountain pen ink. This is also signed by Barrow (for Ruppert) and E.S. Barnard. JSA LOAA.

810 1946 All Star Game Umpires 8.5..... 50
w/Barlick & Hubbard

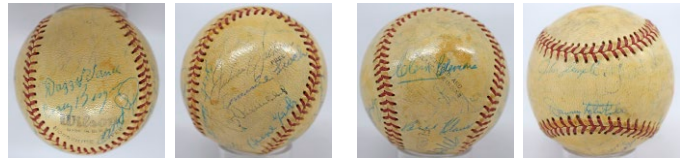

Very nice ball, this is off-white with a great period feel. Noted on a panel, this has seven bold signatures. The autographs include HOF umpires Al Barlick and Cal Hubbard. The Hubbard signature is on the sweet spot and looks terrific. This is a ball that you hardly ever see from a classic All Star Game. Please note the PSA DNA letter incorrectly notes this as a 1946 World Series signed baseball. PSA DNA (full).

811 1947 World Series Umpires w/Bill McGowan 8.5... 75
Very nice ball, this is an off-white and quite clean OAL Harridge model. The ball has an attractive patina and is signed by the six umpires who worked the historic 1947 World Series. The autographs are all clean, and contrast nicely against the clean ball. The key here is the very desirable autograph of HOFer Bill McGowan (D'54). The other signatures include Babe Pinelli, G.F. Magerkurth, Eddie Rommell, Jim Boyer and Larry Goetz (touch light). PSA DNA (full).

812 1950s Old Timers w/Vance & VanderMeer 9 150
Interesting ball, this was apparently signed at an Old Timers Day game in January 1959. The ball is a lightly toned unmarked model bursting with 27 bold blue ballpoint ink signatures. The highlights include HOFer Dazzy Vance (D'63), Johnny Allen (D'1959), Heinie Groh, Johnny VanderMeer, Bobby Bragan, Don Zimmer, Rip Sewell, Al Lopez, Zack Taylor and Hoyt Wilhem. This comes with the original ball bag. JSA LOAA.

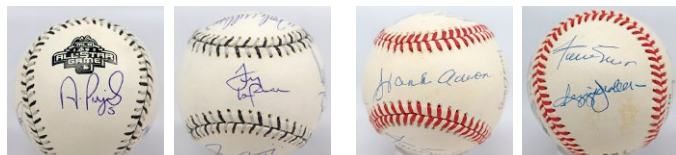

813 1950s/60s Old Timers w/Dazzy Vance 7 120
Mildly toned and clear-coated Florida State League baseball, this has about 15 discernible signatures, with note to a solid Dazzy Vance on a side panel. The other signatures that are easily identifiable include 1927 Yankee Bennie Benough, a vintage Yogi Berra, Max Lanier, Bill Klaus, Ken Boyer, Heinie Groh and Tommie Leach. Likely signed at a HOF game, this is an interesting mix of autographs. JSA LOAA.

814 1956 Milwaukee Braves Announcers 6.5..... 30
w/Blaine Walsh

Very unusual ball, this is a lightly toned and clean ONL Giles model. The ball was signed by three Milwaukee Braves broadcasters at the time. The main autograph is Blaine Walsh (D'85, also called football games). This is also signed by his broadcasting partner Earl Gillespie. Two other signatures appear on an opposing panel, one is illegible, the other is Walter M..., we could not identify them. JSA LOAA.

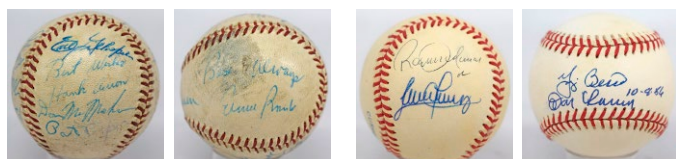

815 1960s Old Timers/Stars w/Berra & Rolfe 8..... 75
Unmarked ball has mild toning and some general wear, there are 26 signatures that vary in darkness. Mainly Yankees and Red Sox players, the autographs include Joe Dugan, Red Rolfe, Yogi Berra, Vern Stephens, Joe Page, Lou Boudreau, Bump Hadley and Luke Appling. This was likely signed at a game in the early 1950s. JSA LOAA.

Day Two: Multi-Signed Baseballs

816 2003 Cardinals All Stars w/Pujols (6 sigs) 9.5..... 80

Very nice ball, this is from Mike Shannon's restaurant. JSA LOAA.

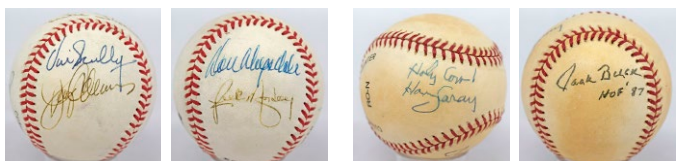

817 500 Home Run Hitters w/Aaron & Mays (10) 9.5 (ONL White)..... 135
Super clean ball, this has flawless signatures from 500 Home Run Club members Aaron, Mays, Jackson, Schmidt, McCovey, Robinson, Mathews, Murray, Banks and Killebrew. JSA LOA (full).

818 Aaron/Banks Signed 1960s Ball w/others 8 60
Vintage 1960s era game ball, this has 10 period ink signatures. Signed to a VIP, this has some very unusual period signatures of Hank Aaron and Ernie Banks with Best Wishes or Happy Birthday inscriptions. The other autographs include Chuck Dressen (D'66), Lou Boudreau, Don McMahon, Walt Moryn, Billy Bruton and George Myatt. Balls like this with Aaron and Banks are hardly ever found. JSA LOAA.

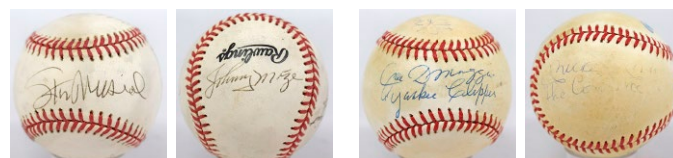

819 Alomar, Roberto & Sandy (JSA LOAA) 9 23

820 Berra/Larsen 9.5 (OAL Brown)..... 53
Spotless ball, this has two particularly bold and superb blue ballpoint ink signatures on the sweet spot. JSA LOAA.

821 Broadcasters w/Scully & Drysdale! 9..... 100
An almost impossible ball, these are sadly rare as Drysdale died in only 1993. From Mike Shannon's restaurant, this clean ONL White ball has six solid signatures. The other autographs are Vin Scully, Mike Shannon, Joe Buck, Jerry Coleman and Rick Monday. JSA LOAA.

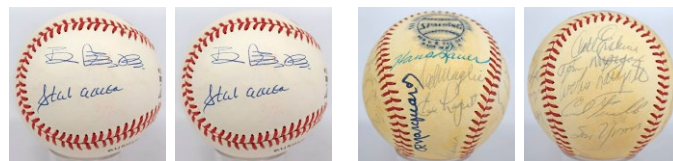

822 Buck/Caray 9..... 80
One of the ultimate pairs of HOF Broadcasters, this evenly toned ONL Coleman ball is terrific. Harry Caray signed just to the left of the sweet spot, Jack Buck on the south panel. The autographs are in matching bold ballpoint ink with desirable inscriptions. JSA LOAA.

825 DiMaggio/Mantle w/rare inscriptions 8 100
Very interesting baseball, offered is a mildly toned OAL MacPhail ball from the early to mid 1980s. The sweet spot has a solid Joe DiMaggio Yankee Clipper signature, which is utterly unheard on a ball from this era. Pleasing lot of 1950 Bowman baseball cards, these have clean fronts but staining and/or residue from scrapbook removal. There is no obvious paper loss on the key cards. The cards retain good color and nice eye appeal. Anchored by the key Jackie Robinson and Ted Williams cards, nearly every key card comes in the lot: 1 Mel Parnell RC, 3 Dom DiMaggio, 6 Bob Feller, 8 George Kell, 10 Tommy Henrich, 11 Phil Rizzuto, 12 Joe Page, 16 Roy Sievers RC, 19 Warren Spahn, 21 Pee Wee Reese, 22 Jackie Robinson, 32 Robin Roberts, 35 Enos Slaughter, 39 Larry Doby, 40 Bob Lemon, 43 Bobby Doerr, 46 Yogi Berra, 58 Carl Furillo, 59 Ralph Branca, 71 Red Schoendienst, 75 Roy Campanella, 77 Duke Snider, 84 Richie Ashburn, 98 Ted Williams, 112 Gil Hodges, 139 Johnny Mize, 148 Early Wynn, 217 Casey Stengel MG and 219 Hank Bauer RC. This should be a very simple project to complete if desired, but the many stars offer a very substantial value to this lot as presented.

Sharp lot of 1951 Bowmans, these were mounted onto board by team back-to-back way back when and will have likely back damage of various degrees upon removal; the presentation is very nice. Our consignor attempted to remove some, and they tend to have extra paper. An outstanding value for this reason, the fronts look great. These better cards come in the lot: 1 Ford RC, 2 Berra, 7 Hodges, 8 Roberts, 26 Rizzuto, 30 Feller, 31 Campanella, 32 Snider, 50 Mize, 80 Reese, 122 Garagiola RC, 134 Spahn, 143 Kluszewski, 165 Williams, 181 Stengel, 186 Ashburn, 198 M Irvin RC, 232 N Fox RC, 254 Jensen RC, 260 Erskine RC, 290 Dickey, 291 Henrich, 295 Al Lopez, 317 Burgess RC, 323 Adcock RC and 324 Pramesa RC.

One of the most desirable and provocative mechanical graphically stunning with original painted finish, the condition is near Excellent.

dition of a padded catchers glove. The image itself is 13x10,
