Letter To Readers

2025 was a record year for Clean Sweep Auctions. Our partnership with Lelands Auctions has led to tremendous consignments flowing in both directions, allowing our consignors to maximize their distribution options, and therefore get more money for their prized collectibles.

None of this would be possible without our wonderful base of old and new customers, consignors and suppliers, THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR MAKING THIS POSSIBLE.

We changed the format for our print catalog. In trying to accomodate our long-term clients and the modern social media age, we will be shifting some resources from print into online marketing. We have eliminated the descriptions in the printed catalog, they are available online, and we can assist over the phone as well.

The current auction is our unique to the industry affordable autograph, card and memorabilia auction. Covering all of the major sports, this auction consists almost entirely of collectibles with a retail value of $500 or less and low minimum bids. This particular auction contains a very interesting assortment of autographs, cards and memorabilia from all of the major sports.

Day one is all about baseball autographs as usual. Signed cards come first: we have a nice assortment of vintage signed cards with HOFers, scarce signatures and contemporary signed cards. 3x5 collectors will see many fine slabbed pieces, including the DiMaggio Brothers, Koufax/Drysdale, Willard Brown, Fred Merkle, Branch Rickey and more. Signed cuts include Jimmie Foxx, Rogers Hornsby and a really nice early Mickey Mantle. We have a nice run of GPCs, with group lots and single pieces.

Signed photo collectors will see a broad selection of HOFer and star signed 8x10s with all of the usual suspects, many quality 8x10 group lots, interesting vintage signed photos and some fun combo images.

We have a strong selection of signed programs dating back to the 1940s, with Mantle, Koufax, Mays and Williams, the Yankee famed Core Four and many other key stars. There are some very nice lots with large quantities of HOFers and stars on Gateway Cachets, many very fine signed jerseys and hats as well.

Baseball autographs also feature many high quality signed large prints of classic HOF players and a deep run of signed bats. Signed baseballs conclude day one: there is a broad selection of single signed baseballs, with a heavy concentration of HOFers; also present are many desirable group lots of single signed balls. Day one concludes with a solid selection of team and multi-signed baseballs that go back to the 1940s, and stretch out over 110 separate lots.

Day two starts with baseball cards. We have clean sets from the 1970s, some nice unopened boxes and packs and quality group lots. This auction has many fine vintage cards that usually do not appear in this sytle auction. These cards include clean 1950s cards of Ted Williams, Mickey Mantle, Willie Mays and Roberto Clemente among much more. Baseball cards conclude with some better modern cards.

Basketball collectors will see a mix of single cards, unopened items and autographed pieces. Football is always a big part of these auctions. Bidders will see several sets and group lots, vintage HOF cards with Tittle and Unitas Rookies and unopened material. Football autograph collectors will see many fine slabbed 3x5s, photos, jerseys, helmets and more. Hockey collectors will see a small but solid offering of autographs.

Baseball memorabilia nicely concludes the auction. We start with publications. There are many clean 1940s and 1950s World Series Programs, All Star Games and yearbooks. The auction has a fun lifelong Brooklyn Dodgers collection spread out over 100 lots. These include many tougher Dodger programs, tickets, photos, schedules and other interesting flat items. Additional baseball memorabilia in the auction include nice tickets, pennants, photos and more.

The image displays a variety of hockey trading cards and a box set. At the top left, two cards from the 1979 Topps set feature Bobby Orr (Bruins) and Ken Dryden (Canadiens). Below these are two more cards: Bobby Orr (Bruins) and Bobby Orr (All-Star). To the right, three cards from the 1985 Topps set show Larry Robinson (Canadiens), Borje Salming (Maple Leafs), and Wayne Gretzky (Edmonton Oilers). In the center, a red box set for the 1990 Hockey Card Set is visible. To the right of the box set are two more cards: Wayne Gretzky (Edmonton Oilers) and Mario Lemieux (Pittsburgh Penguins). The cards are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some overlapping.
